Diocesan Deacon Mark Paine has written new Autism-friendly resources for children and young people. With the support of The God Who Speaks Scripture initiative Deacon Mark has developed the resources for RE teachers and Catechists who have no experience or specialist knowledge of Autism and related neurological differences.

The free resources draw on current best practice in inclusive and adaptive religious education and catechesis. They are available to use and download now and include a Foreword from Archbishop Bernard Longley.

Access on birminghamdiocese.org.uk

Deacon Mark serves at Our Lady and St Rose of Lima, Weoley Castle and St Peter, Bartley Green.

He is part of the global disability theology network, 'The Catholic Stream', formed recently in Rome and is focused on championing neurodivergence.

Deacon Mark is Autistic himself and a father to Autistic children. He has over 28 years' experience in primary education, with a particular interest in Special Educational Needs. Deacon Mark is the Lead Officer of Birmingham SENDIASS (SEND Information, Advice and Support Services).

The new resources are 'Called By Name' and 'Radical Belonging'.
